State Route 74 Closes Due to Holy Fire Between Riverside and Orange Counties

ORANGE COUNTY - The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) is closing State Route 74 (SR 74) due to the Holy Fire, which started on Monday, August 6, in the Cleveland National Forest in Orange County. The closure limits are from Grand Avenue in Lake Elsinore to Nichols Institute in Orange County.

The fire has burned over 6,000 acres and has moved into Riverside County near Lake Elsinore and El Cariso. Motorists are advised to use alternate routes to Riverside County locations such as SR 91 and SR 76.

There is no estimated length of time for the closure, which is dependent on fire activity and evacuations.
