FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SAN LUIS OBISPO MARATHON INCLUDES RAMP CLOSURE/TRAFFIC CONTROL

SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY – The inaugural San Luis Obispo Marathon will take place on Sunday, April 22 and will affect motorists in the following areas:

- The Hwy. 101 on/off ramps at Marsh Street will be closed in both directions on Sunday, April 22 from 4 am to 3 pm.
- Motorists can expect one-way reversing traffic control on State Route 227 from Corbett Canyon Road to Biddle Ranch Road on Sunday, April 22 from 4 am to 3 pm.

Electronic message boards have been posted to advise motorists who are encouraged to use an alternate route during this event.

Caltrans reminds motorists to move over and slow down when driving through Caltrans construction zones.

For traffic updates on other state highway projects in San Luis Obispo County, motorists can call Caltrans District 5 Public Affairs at 805-549-3318 or visit the District 5 website at: http://www.dot.ca.gov/dist05/road_information.htm
