Hi Steve,

I have left you a voice mail and have not heard back from you, so I apologize in my delay responding to your email. I have some unfortunate news...we have graduated out of the DBE program and sadly, there are no other fuel distributors in CA that meet the Caltrans DBE requirements that are not brokers solely with which to refer you to. I know DBE spend goals are critical to give you a leg up to win these contracts, but if you would still like a quote from us anyway, I'd be happy to provide one. If you do win and require fueling, we'd still be very happy to provide this service for you.

Please let me know and I'll follow up with further questions.

Thank you,
Jennifer
