

The Ports are America's Gateway to the Asian Markets.

The Inland Empire is the Gateway to America.

More than $400 billion in trade pass through SoCal ports of entry annually.

40% of nation's containerized freight flows through the ports, 80% of that through San Bernardino County.

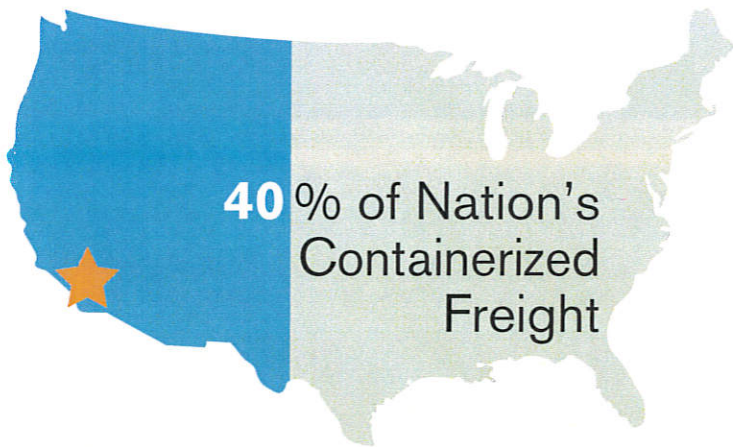

200 million square feet of warehouse facilities in San Bernardino County.

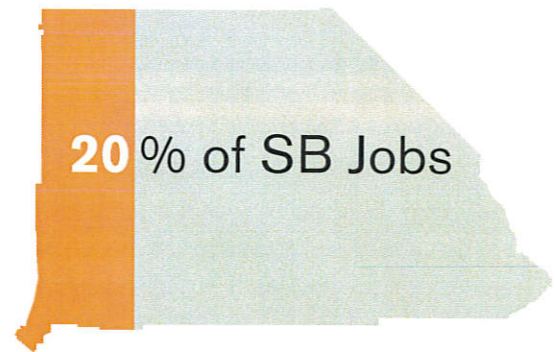

Trucks moving freight make up approximately 13% of the volume on San Bernardino County freeways.

United States of America

As America continues to be the largest consumer in the world, the business of freight remains critical to our internal markets throughout the country. San Bernardino County infrastructure has national significance toward our economic competitiveness.

San Bernardino County

The business of freight means JOBS in San Bernardino County. The distribution and logistics sector employs approximately 125,000 workers in San Bernardino County, representing nearly 20% of the county's employment.

Plan. Build. Move.

cta

San Bernardino County
Transportation Authority