

CLEAN CALIFORNIA

Requa Resort Beautification

PROJECT OVERVIEW

This site sits at the western edge of Yurok lands near the Klamath townsite on the DownRiver portion of the Reservation in Del Norte County. It is located where the Klamath River meets the Pacific Ocean on the northern side of the Klamath River. The site is an old RV Park that has fallen into disrepair over the years. It has boat ramps and a public restroom building with showers. For this location, a day use area with picnic tables, custom made benches, screen fencing to provide privacy of the boat dock storage on the site, landscaping work to incorporate minimal maintenance plants and trees, and a full remodel of the existing bathroom structure.
