To get the special character represented in the box you must type a back slash then the number above the character in the Microstation Text Editor window. Example: `\` will show the `&` sign.