

Revision Log for Trenchless Construction

Implementation Date: January 2026

- To align with the updated Geotechnical Design Reports module, the Reporting section was updated to include:
  - Reporting specifics for the Analysis and Design section of the PGDR and GDR.
  - Reporting specifics for the Recommendations section of the PGDR and GDR.
- Editorial updates to the Investigations section to achieve consistency among all design modules.

Implementation Date: December 2023

- Major update to all sections of the module.
- Added tables that address applicability of trenchless methods to various site conditions.
- Updated information in the Commonly used Trenchless Methods section.

Implementation Date: January 2022

- Minor clarification regarding 30-inch boring diameter in Reporting section.

Implementation Date: June 2021

- First Version