

Caltrans is revising the qualifying criteria for chemical adhesives.

Temporarily the review of chemical adhesives is suspended.

The Department is working with the industry association CAMA in this development effort.

Manufacturers interested in being involved are encouraged to engage through the industry association. The current list will remain valid until further notice. Manufacturers with product on the list will be notified of the new requirements prior to the abolishment of the current list.