DIRECTOR'S POLICY

Number: DP-19
Effective Date: 08-29-01
Supercedes: NEW

Title: Working with Native American Communities

POLICY

When working on issues affecting Native American communities, the Department of Transportation (Department) acts consistently, respectfully and sensitively. When there are regulatory, statutory and/or procedural impediments limiting the Department’s ability to work effectively and consistently with Native American communities, the Department seeks to resolve such impediments.

The Department establishes and adheres to government-to-government relationships when interacting with federally recognized California Native American Tribes (Tribal Governments). The Department:

- Acknowledges these tribes as unique and separate governments within the United States.
- Ensures that its programs and activities avoid or minimize adverse impacts to cultural and other resources.
- Recognizes and respects important California Native American rights, sites, traditions and practices.
- Consults with Tribal Governments prior to making decisions, taking actions or implementing programs that may impact their communities.

INTENDED RESULTS

When engaging in activities or developing policies that affect Native American tribal rights or trust resources, the Department acts in a knowledgeable, sensitive and respectful manner.

Native American communities include lands held in trust by Tribal Governments, communities of non-federally recognized tribes, tribal members of California tribes living outside the exterior boundaries of a reservation or rancheria, Native Americans that are not part of a California tribe living in California.
