

Transportation Permit Services List

Caltrans provides OSOW (Over---Sized/Over---Weight) transportation permits for qualified loads and vehicles to operate safely on the California State Highway System. Caltrans posts this list of fee---based permit services as courtesy information only. Caltrans does not endorse or recommend any permit service company and is not responsible for the representations or acts of these companies. Permits services are especially useful to the commercial trucking industry to expedite processing and to coordinate multiple permit applications. Permit services therefore, are always optional, never mandatory. Caltrans gives no preferential treatment to permit service companies or their applications.
